Celebrating America

Containing 26 episodes on ten DVDs, the American Heritage Series follows David Barton as he experiences the untold, true story of our nation’s history. For centuries, Americans were taught a view of history that recognized the godly heroes and moral foundation upon which America was founded. However, a secular version of history has rewritten the moral and spiritual fiber of our nation and neglected many of those teachings. From the separation of church and state to the civil rights movement, this Christian series inspires Americans to reclaim the godly history of our nation.

Join historian David Barton with special guests Glenn Beck, Rick Green, Dr. Carol M. Swain, and Congresswoman Michele Bachmann as they explore the America our Founding Fathers envisioned. From the formation of American law and the judicial system to biblically-based economics, science, government, and more, discover how our Founding Fathers used the Bible as a blueprint for America’s freedoms and build your faith in our nation’s future with Foundations of Freedom.

Become an eyewitness to the politics and personalities that helped frame the U.S. Constitution in this inspiring documentary. Filmed on location at key historic sites, A More Perfect Union is set ten years after the Declaration of Independence and brings to life the events surrounding the Constitution’s creation through the eyes of James Madison, George Washington, and Benjamin Franklin. In the midst of turmoil with England over unfair trade and tariffs, these brilliant patriots launched a political battle to create a new form of self-government for the world.

The year is 1861. As President Lincoln calls for 75,000 men to join the Union army, the nation teeters on the brink of the Civil War. Meanwhile, a covert battle waged by the Underground Railroad has been raging for decades. Station master William Hanby (Jade Metcalf) helps runaway slaves reach freedom, dangerously defying the Fugitive Slave Act of 1850 and putting his own family in peril. The risk doubles when a bounty hunter shows up determined to make money by capturing escaped slaves and returning them to their masters.

Learn about a little-known American heroine in this fascinating true story! Inspired by actual events during the Revolutionary War, Sybil Ludington follows the journey of Colonel Henry Ludington’s 16-year-old daughter, who dodged danger and enemy troops to ride 40 rain-soaked miles on horseback to tell over 400 colonists to prepare to fight the approaching British troops. Because of her courage, the men were able to defeat the British advance and save the colonies. Today, Sybil is known as “the female Paul Revere” and one of America’s greatest female patriots.

Based on a previously untold story, All for Liberty is a multi-award winning film that depicts the true events of Captain Henry Felder, a backcountry hero of the American Revolution. A Swiss-German immigrant farmer in South Carolina, Felder responds to British tyranny by writing an Articles of Separation from the English king and raising his own militia, including a female tavern owner who gathers a patriot spy ring. In the ensuing struggle against the British Empire, community loyalists, and his old comrade, Bill Jenkins, Felder and his family find the cost of freedom.

Filmed at England’s beautiful Blockley Church, God Came Near is narrated by renowned author and pastor Max Lucado, who brings his best-selling book to life. This series explores the topics of Simeon, the man who waited for the birth of the Messiah, as well as the true history of Saint Nicholas, the wise men of the Christmas story. Lucado encourages viewers to be like the wise men of the Christmas story and start seeking the Lord each day.

When Mandie Shaw is thrust into Miss Heathwood’s School for Girls, she struggles to grasp the school’s new rules and the finer points of high society. As Mandie tries to stay out of hot water with the headmistress seems to have against her, she stumbles upon a mystery in the school’s forbidden attic. Mandie tries to stay out of hot water with the headmistress seems to have against her, she stumbles upon a mystery in the school’s forbidden attic. Miss Heathwood and discover what the school’s forbidden attic. Mandie tries to stay out of hot water with the headmistress seems to have against her, she stumbles upon a mystery in the school’s forbidden attic.

In the midst of the Great Depression, the Kamp family has struggled since Mrs. Kamp’s death. The elder children do their best to care for the family, but the younger children, including Hopalong Cassidy fan Norman and straight-talking little Ruthie, struggle the most. With mounting debt from Norman’s battle with polio, the siblings fully expect a Christmas without presents, but when Father scrapes together a dollar in coins, everything changes. As each child comes up with a special gift to give, they soon begin to discover that the spirit of Christmas is priceless.

Christmas is priceless. When Mandie Shaw is thrust into Miss Heathwood’s School for Girls, she struggles to grasp the school’s new rules and the finer points of high society. As Mandie tries to stay out of hot water with the headmistress seems to have against her, she stumbles upon a mystery in the school’s forbidden attic. Will Mandie ignore the warning to flee or try to get to the bottom of the strange noises beyond the boarded-up doors? Uncovering the truth may lead to telling a lie, but it might also unlock the memories of a long-forgotten Christmas.

In the midst of the Great Depression, the Kamp family has struggled since Mrs. Kamp’s death. The elder children do their best to care for the family, but the younger children, including Hopalong Cassidy fan Norman and straight-talking little Ruthie, struggle the most. With mounting debt from Norman’s battle with polio, the siblings fully expect a Christmas without presents, but when Father scrapes together a dollar in coins, everything changes. As each child comes up with a special gift to give, they soon begin to discover that the spirit of Christmas is priceless.

Two of Santa’s elves, Elwood and Nora, are vacationing in small-town USA when they receive an urgent transmission from the North Pole about a new law that forbids adults from disciplining children. This sudden lack of consequences has led to an epidemic of bad behavior, and it’s up to Elwood and Nora to stop it. With the help of young Jessicia, the elves set out to transform the children from naughty to nice and rid the town of an economic depression. As their friendship with the girl blossoms, they discover the limits of their magic, the true meaning of Christmas, and the joy of helping others.
Jack Baker is an uncaring executive on the fast track to the top of the corporate ladder. However, when a fellow employee wrongfully accuses him, he loses his job and learns how difficult it can be to find work and compassion in today’s economy. He eventually accepts a humiliating job at a burger restaurant, today’s economy. He eventually accepts a humiliating job at a burger restaurant, but with bills rapidly piling up and not enough money to go around, he quickly discovers that unless something changes he’ll lose everything by Christmas.

As Christmas approaches in the small Wisconsin town of Paradise, the local TV news director, Lucy Collins, struggles to recapture the joy of Christmas after a painful breakup with her fiancé just two years earlier. When the attractive but mysterious Joe McNamara arrives from Chicago to apply for the station’s associate producer position, everything changes for Lucy, her family, and their station. However, Joe has a secret of his own that he is keeping from Lucy, and if she finds out, will a promising relationship unravel, or will the reality of deception make this the worst Christmas of all?

Saint Street follows the life of Percy, a good man who becomes focused on making money rather than spending time with his family. On Christmas Eve, he breaks yet another promise to his wife and children to leave work early and misses the annual Christmas party. After repeated warnings to change his ways, Percy suffers a serious car accident that causes him to lose his family, job, and the use of his legs. Confined to a wheelchair and homeless, Percy is humbled into making changes for Lucy, her family, and their station. However, Joe has a secret of his own that he is keeping from Lucy, and if she finds out, will a promising relationship unravel, or will the reality of deception make this the worst Christmas of all?

Like so many modern families and children, the underwater reef village has forgotten the true meaning of Christmas. The town has been transformed into a holiday wonderland and is lit up with lights and decorations, and everyone is excited about the good food and presents that are to come. Too focused on these festivities, no one notices that the evil Professor Pinch and his silly sidekick Clawed are plotting to destroy the town. Unwrap the truth of Christmas for the season and save their home.

Share a slice of Christmas in this classic story based on the book by Linda Buthers and Ben Sowards. When an epidemic forces the closing of her orphanage, a young girl named Rose (Bailee Johnson) is abruptly shipped from the only home she’s ever known. From its strict headmaster, Mr. Crampton (Edward Hermann), to be cold and cruel. When Rose learns that each child receives an orange on Christmas, she waits in eager anticipation, but will Mr. Crampton take away her special treat?

From acclaimed author Max Lucado comes an emotional story of mystery and discovery. As Christmas draws near, Chicago journalist Jack Davenport is assigned to a job in Dallas, but a mysterious photograph of a church draws him to the town of Clearwater, Texas, where he meets Rev. Michael Curtis (Steven Curtis Chapman) and discovers an intricately carved nativity scene. As Jack delves into the mysteries surrounding the nativity and its creator, he uncovers past secrets, reunites with the family he never knew, and returns to the love who never left him.

Join one man’s persistent pursuit of the truth behind what the Bible says and doesn’t say about hell in this thought-provoking family film. When he’s just a child, Edward Fudge (Mackenzie Astin) loses a friend in a car accident and wonders if the rebellious boy went to hell. The tragedy leads to a lifelong curiosity for Edward, who goes to seminary to become a preacher. There, Edward begins to challenge long-established traditions and meets his nemesis Don Haloway (Sean McGowan). Based on a true story, Hell and Mr. Fudge is a memorable drama about Christ’s abundant grace.

When 17-year-old Mason Jones moves in with the Lewis family, they seem just like all of his previous foster parents: middle-aged with one child and called by God to change his life. However, unlike the others, the Lewis family is determined to keep Mason. With zero chances left to keep Mason, with the others, the Lewis family is determined to keep Mason. With zero chances left to keep Mason.

Despite his son Jake’s protest, Mark Larson decides to leave Chicago and move his family to Providence River Campground to work as the site’s caretakers. Bitter at the move and his manual labor chores, Jake soon meets Peter Owens, a boy who lives with his father across the river. They quickly form a bond that God uses to transform Jake’s life in unimaginable ways. Featuring music from Christian rock bands VOTA, Calling Glory, and Lightswitch, The Current is a moving film about friendship, forgiveness, and trusting in God, even in the most difficult of times.

A small group of compassionate Christians attempt to transform an apathetic congregation in this modern-day adaptation of Charles Sheldon’s highly acclaimed novel. When a homeless man wanders into First Church in Raymond, California, Pastor Henry Maxwell is convicted to challenge his congregation to do nothing for an entire year without first asking, “What would Jesus do?” However, with family strife, church politics, and scorned lovers in their way, can they keep their promise, or will they slip back into their comfortable routines?
A small New Testament passes through the hands of 14 strangers, including a young boy who runs away after he accidentally sets his home on fire, a young couple who must deal with the tragic loss of their child, and a woman hurting from her husband's infidelity.

Each person has a decision to make. Will a crafty retiree encourage a teen outsider to never trust again, she meets Michael and begins to question her decision. Torn between a broken past and an unknown future, will Erica find a way to heal? Her broken marriage. Firm in her resolve to free herself from the devastating memories of her broken marriage, Erica discovers that her manipulative ex-boss, William, has a crush on Joyce, her attractive life coach named Joyce (Rebecca St. James) to get his life back on track. When he accompanies Joyce's volunteer group to a retirement home, David discovers that his manipulative ex-boss, William, has a crush on Joyce, too. There, a crafty retiree encourages the pair to face one another for her heart.

With a push from his roommate after losing his job, David (Joe Boyd) hires an attractive life coach named Joyce (Rebecca St. James) to get his life back on track. When he accompanies Joyce’s volunteer group to a retirement home, David discovers that his manipulative ex-boss, William, has a crush on Joyce, too. There, a crafty retiree encourages the pair to face one another for her heart.

To hold his ground, David reluctantly agrees to face one another for her heart. There, a crafty retiree encourages the pair to face one another for her heart. With this conflict now in camp, Stuart takes the opportunity to share the story of the Old Testament prophet Hosea and his example of faith, commitment, and unconditional love.

Four teenagers named Steve, Carrie, Cooper, and Gametoby embark on a weekend camping trip led by their church youth group leader Stuart (Sean Astin, Rudy) and his wife Beth (Erin Bethea, Fireproof). Joining them is a teen outsider, Ashley, a materialistic self-involved rich kid, whose attitude causes a major commotion within the group, particularly with Carrie. With this conflict now in camp, Stuart takes the opportunity to share the story of the Old Testament prophet Hosea and his example of faith, commitment, and unconditional love.

From the creators of Stand Strong, Uphill Battle is an inspiring story of hope and faith for those faced with starting over again. Three years after a painful divorce due to her husband’s addiction to pornography and infidelity, Erica Stratton works to provide for her two children. Though she appears strong and independent, she struggles to free herself from the devastating memories of her broken marriage. Firm in her resolve to never trust again, she meets Michael and begins to question her decision. Torn between a broken past and an unknown future, will Erica find a way to heal?

The Covenant is a breathtaking musical drama that recounts the remarkable story of the Jewish people from the calling of Abraham until the establishment of the State of Israel. Experience the pain of Egyptian slavery through the eyes of Moses’ mother as she sets her baby in the Nile River. Then, face the challenge with Esther as she risks her life to plead for her people and see the suffering of the Jews in Jerusalem under Roman occupation. In the centuries following, The Covenant brings you to the terror of the Holocaust and the promised rebirth of Israel in 1948.

Josh and Anne have just moved into their first house. Jack is a young, idealistic social worker who is ready to be welcomed to the neighborhood. Next door are George and Tia. Retired and ready for a slower life, George is not inclined to give a warm welcome to the new neighbors, much to Tia’s chagrin. What starts off as a day of yard work and random to-do’s for Josh turns into a series of misunderstandings and confrontations. Inspired by actual events, Fenced Off explores the reality that loving your neighbor can be complicated.

Tony Morris is a local newspaper reporter who is demoted into writing for his paper’s community section after his credibility is falsely called into question. Little does Tony know that his first assignment in his new role presents the biggest challenge of his young career. With his job on the line, Tony is assigned to cover the town’s first Gay Pride Day and interview parade organizer Markus Fry. Challenged to an open debate on the biblical principles of homosexuality, Tony must choose between relying on his Christian values and moral convictions or taking the easy way out and just writing the story.

With Egypt Valley Church out of funds and out of touch with the community, new pastor Evan Bennett arrives in Connersville, Indiana, and joins the struggle to rebuild relationships, repair the broken down facility, refill the church bank account. Then, when a major spending issue threatens the church’s very survival, Evan steps in with a controversial plan, but one family is willing to do anything to stop him. Inspired by actual events, Seven Deadly Words is a powerful tale of faith, betrayal, victory, and survival.
Ted and Lynn Murphy have three children and a small business, but the family’s simple, suburban existence turns upside down when Ted signs a petition advocating for traditional marriage. What Ted saw as a small act of civic duty soon sends him stumbling into the spotlight of a community that now looks at the family man as a heartless bigot. As their reputation, relationships, and livelihood quickly unravel, the family wrestles with their faith. Inspired by actual events, Accidental Activist reinforces the message that even in the darkest hour, there is always hope.

In the apocalyptic era foretold in the Bible, a New World Order has taken power, and the Supreme Chancellor has mandated that all people must pledge their allegiance to the ideals of his master, Lord Aldo De Luca, and receive a mark that distinguishes each person as a legal citizen of the order. Now Demi Holloway and Christen Brooks must make a choice that will affect their eternal destiny. Will the two women take the mark of the New World Order and live under the antichrist, or will they die for the testimony of Jesus Christ?

 Amid the uncertainties of World War I and financial pressures, Pastor Frederick Lehman begins to compose a song about the love of God. When Frederick gets stuck on the third verse, his ten-year-old son, Blynn, calls a sibling council to help Papa finish the song. While the Lehman kids get to work, they explore an old asylum, meet a real Jewish Rabbi, and learn about events that took place over eight centuries earlier. The true story of how the classic hymn “The Love of God” came to be, Indescribable features the vocals of gospel music singer Guy Penrod.

All that separates Eastbrook High students from Christmas break is one day of final exams. The light snowfall that Friday, however, soon escalates into a threatening storm that cancels school and leaves six students stranded in the dark gym. The teens’ entrapment into a threatening storm that cancels that Friday, however, soon escalates after falling into enemy hands in this emotional drama that takes a very different look at war. Strangers to one another, Pvt. Aaron Phillips, Lt. Steven Hill, and Sgt. Bryan Monroe have their own stories and different levels of military experience. While Pvt. Phillips is on his first tour of duty, Lt. Hill has returned to active duty from the reserves, and Sgt. Monroe is on his fourth and final tour. Trapped in a small prison cell, the soldiers swap stories of their memories of home, but time is running out, and their lives are hanging in the balance.

Based on a true frontier story of conflict and compassion, Redemption follows the story of Henry Heath, a lawman on the western frontier in 1862. After the grieving sheriff buries his only child, he learns that Jean Baptiste has been robbing the graves of the recently deceased. Torn between duty, outrage, and guilt about his own past, Heath becomes Baptiste’s only defense against the bloodthirsty contempt of the community and the brutal isolation of the inhospitable Antelope Island in the middle of the Great Salt Lake where Baptiste has been exiled.

King’s Heart is based on the true story of Louis and his middle son, Joey, the smallest starting offensive lineman for his high school’s varsity football team. Joey, who’s used to going up against players twice his size, is faced with seemingly insurmountable odds just three days before the state championship game. At the eleventh hour, Joey must decide if he will throw in the towel or rise up in victory. An award-winning short film, King’s Heart features the hit song “Live Like That” by the Christian band Sidewalk Prophets.

Caleb (Randy Wayne) is a teenager whose ill mother (Rosanna Arquette) and absent father (John Schneider), leave him reaching for his dream of getting away from all his troubles. After discovering a stack of old love letters, he sets out to find the father he never knew and inadvertently begins a journey he never could have expected.

Luke O’Brien, a washed-up salesman turned night law student, decides to sue Satan for $8 billion. On the last day before Luke flies a default judgment, Satan appears in the courtroom to defend himself with a legal team of ten of the country’s best trial lawyers. Armed with Scripture and conviction, Luke fights an epic, spiritual battle against Satan (Malcolm McDowell), while the whole world watches the trial of the century on LegalTV. A faith-based legal thriller, Suing the Devil features the hit song “Mighty to Save” from Hillsong Music.

Rivka is a beautiful and precocious 12-year-old Messianic Jewish girl whose life is shattered when her father, her last remaining parent, dies. Forced to live with her aunt and uncle, traditional Jews who have broken their mitzvah in the uncomfortable and at times unwelcoming atmospheres of their synagogue. Along the way, Rivka finds her calling and learns life lessons that stir her faith to new levels of maturity and depth.

When a precious little girl, Elizabeth, dies of a rare heart condition, her loving parents are left to pick up the pieces of their once perfect life and discover the healing power of faith. Through a miraculous sequence of events, an angel guides Elizabeth’s mother, Laura (Kari Hawker), to a homeless girl named Punkin’ (Savanna Lewis), who needs the fight to set Punkin’ free and rebuild his grieving family.

Caleb (Randy Wayne) is a teenager whose ill mother (Rosanna Arquette) and absent father (John Schneider), leave him reaching for his dream of getting away from all his troubles. After discovering a stack of old love letters, he sets out to find the father he never knew and inadvertently begins a journey he never could have expected.

Named for the question Mattieskio Wuopio gets every time he says his name, Mr. What has spent 22 years in prison for a crime he didn’t commit. Upon apprehension of the true culprit, he’s released, only to face harassment and the jailbird stigma as he attempts to re-enter society in tiny Tecumseh, Michigan. Meanwhile, Mr. What seeks a neighborhood boy without friends or a father who cares, and a stray dog. In the end, a miracle proves that God is never far out of reach for those in need of healing.

Luke O’Brien, a washed-up salesman turned night law student, decides to sue Satan for $8 billion. On the last day before Luke flies a default judgment, Satan appears in the courtroom to defend himself with a legal team of ten of the country’s best trial lawyers. Armed with Scripture and conviction, Luke fights an epic, spiritual battle against Satan (Malcolm McDowell), while the whole world watches the trial of the century on LegalTV. A faith-based legal thriller, Suing the Devil features the hit song “Mighty to Save” from Hillsong Music.

Rivka is a beautiful and precocious 12-year-old Messianic Jewish girl whose life is shattered when her father, her last remaining parent, dies. Forced to live with her aunt and uncle, traditional Jews who have broken their mitzvah in the uncomfortable and at times unwelcoming atmospheres of their synagogue. Along the way, Rivka finds her calling and learns life lessons that stir her faith to new levels of maturity and depth.

When a precious little girl, Elizabeth, dies of a rare heart condition, her loving parents are left to pick up the pieces of their once perfect life and discover the healing power of faith. Through a miraculous sequence of events, an angel guides Elizabeth’s mother, Laura (Kari Hawker), to a homeless girl named Punkin’ (Savanna Lewis), who needs
Follow the adventures of Amanda Elizabeth Shaw in this unforgettable trilogy. Based on the popular books by Lois Gladys Leppard, this series is set in the early 1900s and boasts a delightful cast of characters, who, in the tradition of Little House on the Prairie and Anne of Green Gables, learn valuable lessons as they conquer hardships, solve mysteries, and celebrate life’s triumphs.

When Mandie Shaw is thrust into Miss Heathwood’s School for Gits, she struggles to grasp the school’s new rules and the finer points of high society. As Mandie tries to stay out of hot water with Miss Heathwood and discover what the headmistress seems to have against Christmas, she stumbles upon a mystery in the school’s forbidden attic. Will Mandie ignore the warning to flee or try to get to the bottom of the strange noises beyond the boarded-up doors? Uncovering the truth may lead to telling a lie, but it might also unlock the memories of a long-forgotten Christmas.

A gripping and heartbreaking film about perception, suffering, and hope. Eyes to See tells the story of a news cameraman who is assigned to capture Haiti in the aftermath of the 2010 earthquake that left over 300,000 dead. In the midst of the catastrophic damage created by the 7.0 magnitude quake, the cameraman is forced to choose between doing his job and stepping out from behind the lens to help the victims. Inspired by the personal experiences of writer and director David de Vos, this drama is forced to choose between doing his job and stepping out from behind the lens to help the victims.

Redemption Ride follows Colter Reese, a world-class bicycle racing champion who thought he had ridden his last mile after testing positive for performance-enhancing drugs. While trying to hold on to his last remaining treasure, his ill son Jonah, Colter is visited by a mysterious race representative who offers him a chance to ride in a unique, long-distance endurance race. Desperate for the prize money, Colter sets out on a thousand mile journey that will change everything, starting with himself.

Beyond Acceptance

A moving story of forgiveness, love, and second chances. First-time foster parents Aaron and Stacy don’t realize when they welcome 10-year-old Evans into their stable home that their lives will never be the same. Abandoned at birth and shuffled through foster homes, Evans presents a challenge for which the Christian couple and their daughter, Jennie, are not prepared. Shaken by their lack of control, faced with daily tantrums, crushed by Evans’ rejection of their affections, and resentful of the chaos he has created, Aaron and Stacy begin to wonder if Evans’ erratic behavior will send them over the edge.

The Secrets of Jonathan Sperry

This Christian romantic comedy will lift your spirits with its lighthearted tale of growing up, letting go, and making a fresh start. Though it’s been years since his wife died, Ned Stevens reluctantly begins dating after his daughter Liz brings home a new boyfriend named David. Can Liz succeed in diverting her dad’s attention from sabotaging her relationship to succumbing to the charms of Carol, the single woman Ned sees jogging every morning? Together, Liz and David teach Ned that with love, there are always second chances.

Resurrection

Max Lucado’s renowned short story is brought to life in this dramatic production that follows Claudius, a Roman guard who finds himself in the middle of a cover-up of the tumultuous events following Christ’s execution. As he diggs for the truth, Claudius discovers that the religious leaders, the Roman government, and even his closest friends are attempting to hide something from him and the world. In the end, his relentless pursuit of the answers to his growing questions threatens his reputation and even his life, but it also leads to his renewal.

Tensions mount as a nuclear bomb is detonated in New York City. Across the country, the people in a small city in Arizona are forced to confront their hopes, fears, and faith as they deal with the aftermath of the disaster in various ways, not knowing what could happen next. Heralded by the Dove Foundation as a timely film that will make you think, My Refuge takes an honest look at everyday people dealing with everyday struggles. As the world teeters on the brink of mass destruction, several people realize how precious life is and that God is the only hope and Savior for mankind.
Football superstar Reggie Knox (Reggie White) retires at the top of his game to become a coach and history teacher at an inner city high school. Reggie soon discovers that a gangster is using students in his local crime ring. A football player is kidnapped, and Reggie must get him back safely. In the end, Reggie’s faith shows that one child’s life must be obedient to God’s plan for his life. Though the answer to his financial difficulties appears to be a valuable piece of property Daniel has inherited, he remains bound to his promise to his late father to keep the land until “the time is right.” However, when Daniel loses his job and his wife, who abandons him for another, Ghana Maury (Gary Burghoff, M*A*S*H) convinces Daniel, a down-and-out man who is failing at work and his marriage, that he must be obedient to God’s plan for his life. When a horrible accident shatters her dreams of being a world class dancer, Riley Adams clings to her faith and is determined to recover in time for the national competition. To regain mobility, she turns to equine therapy, where she discovers a talent for barrel racing. Natalie Canton is devastated when she loses her mother to cancer on Valentine’s Day. Now, the heartbroken 15-year-old feels that all she has left of her beloved mother is a fragile white rose, which is also her only symbol of hope. A horrific car accident has left ten-year-old Sunny Mathews (Kelsey Mulrooney, A Little Princess) disabled, but the damage to her legs pales in comparison to the emotional wounds caused by the death of her father. Now, only a horse named Ginger that has been through his own share of hard times can reach her. Natalie’s father sends her to Nevada to spend Christmas on her aunt’s ranch. On the first day, a pure white horse appears in its place the next day. Natalie’s rose is also her only symbol of hope. As a much-needed distraction, Natalie’s father takes on a school project photographing wild horses, she has no idea they are about to become her passion. She quickly falls in love with the ranch lifestyle and the graceful movements and flowing manes of the mustangs. However, while visiting the ranch on a summer vacation, she learns about illegal activities that put her, her friend C.J. (Danielle Chuchran), and the ranchers in danger.

Doing what is easy and what is right are rarely the same thing. An Ordinary Hero is the amazing true story of Joan Trumpauer Mulholland, a white civil rights activist who, despite being attacked by angry mobs, put on death row in the notorious Parchman Penitentiary, and coming face-to-face with the KKK, never wavered from her belief that we are all created equal. Full of exclusive interviews and rarely seen images from the civil rights movement, An Ordinary Hero is a rare film that can restore your faith in the power of the human spirit and the belief that all of us can make life better.

Three skeptical friends search for God on the road from Jerusalem, Ohio, to Emmaus, Pennsylvania, in a documentary that earned the Dove Foundation’s highest honor of five doves. In a rundown RV, Brad, Mat, and Joe reenact the biblical pilgrimage from the gospel of Luke in which two travelers encounter the resurrected Jesus on the road from Jerusalem to Emmaus in ancient Israel. What starts as an investigative experiment for the trio ends as a spiritual awakening that helps to answer some of their questions about faith, miracles, missions, and prayer.

In this collection of six short films, a blind man’s sight is restored because he sees Jesus as his Savior (“Seeing”), a woman is miraculously healed after she touches Christ’s garment (“The Touch”), and a widow faithfully gives away her remaining food during a famine (“Elijah and the Widow of Zarephath”). Then, a Jewish man saves his enemy from certain death (“The Good Samaritan”), and in “Akedah (The Binding),” Abraham nearly sacrifices his only son Isaac. In addition, “The Sisters of Bethany” focuses on the important roles Mary and Martha had in Christ’s ministry and teaching.

Hitch a ride back to the Old West with the King of the Cowboys. From his first film appearance in 1937 in Under Western Stars, Rogers worked steadily in westerns, starring in over 90 roles and achieving a popularity that surpassed even Gene Autry. This set contains seven DVDs packed with 28 classic titles, including My Pal Trigger, The Bells of San Angelo, Silver Spurs, and King of the Cowboys. You’ll cheer as you watch your favorite wrangler fight for justice alongside his golden palomino, Trigger, and his best gal, Dale Evans, in this digitally restored collection.
