The Red Ball

Jan has a ball.
It is big and red.
It is fun to catch.
Dan will call Jan.
Jan will let go of her ball.
The ball will go up, up, up.
Is it a ball?

The Mess

What is this?
Who did it?
Who did this mess?
Dan did not do it.
He was in the back.
Kim did not do it.
She was at the job.
Who did it?

Three Missing Pups

BOOM!

Kaboom! went the thunder.
Jen and Freddie ran to the blue shed.
They hid behind a tall yellow can.

“Where are the three pups?” asked Freddie.

“I do not see them,” said Jen.

“We must find them fast,” said Freddie and Jen at the same time.

BOOM!

Kaboom! went the thunder.

The sky was getting black.

Jen and Freddie ran to the house.

“Have you seen our three pups?” Freddie asked Mom.

“No, I have not,” said Mom.

“We must find them fast,” said Freddie and Jen at the same time.

“Let’s think about this,” said Jen.

They went to all the rooms and called their names.

The last room was Jen’s.

Then, she heard a thumping sound.
She looked on her bed and saw three lumps.
“I think I found our three pups,” she said.

BOOM! BOOM!
KABOOOOOOOM!

went the thunder.
Mom came down the hall.
“Where did everyone go?” called Mom.

Then she looked in Jen’s room and saw five lumps on the bed!

Clickety Clack

Clickety clack, clickety clack.

What goes down this railroad track?

It is gray, and it is long.

It is fast, and it is strong.

What goes down this railroad track?

Clickety clack, clickety clack.

It is big and it is black.

It goes there and then comes back.

What goes down this railroad track?

Clickety clack, clickety clack.
